WEDNESDAY VESPERAL DIVINE LITURGY FOR MEETING OF THE
LORD, FEBRUARY 1, 6 PM

EPISTLE 1 Timothy 4:9-15 (Epistle)

This is a faithful saying and worthy of all acceptance.

For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.

These things command and teach.

Let no one despise your youth, but be an example to the believers in word, in conduct, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity.

Till I come, give attention to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.

Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy with the laying on of the hands of the eldership.

Meditate on these things; give yourself entirely to them, that your progress may be evident to all.

GOSPEL Luke 19:1-10 (Gospel)

Then Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

Now behold, there was a man named Zacchaeus who was a chief tax collector, and he was rich.

And he sought to see who Jesus was, but could not because of the crowd, for he was of short stature.

So he ran ahead and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see Him, for He was going to pass that way.

And when Jesus came to the place, He looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, make haste and come down, for today I must stay at your house."

So he made haste and came down, and received Him joyfully.

But when they saw it, they all complained, saying, "He has gone to be a guest with a man who is a sinner."

Then Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord, I give half of my goods to the poor; and if I have taken anything from anyone by false accusation, I restore fourfold."

And Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham; for the Son of Man has come to seek and to save that which was lost.

HOUSE BLESSINGS

There is still time to have your home blessed during the Theophany season. If you would like to have your home blessed, please contact Fr. John by email (troika1709@gmail.com), text (773.939.0549), or after services. It would be wonderful to have the blessing of the Lord come into your home.

READERS NEEDED!

We need people to read for the liturgical services: Hours, Epistles, Old Testament readings, verses, and so forth.

If you are interested, please contact Ron Royhab, Natalie Twarek, or Fr. John.

This is a wonderful opportunity to become more involved in the church services, as well as learning more about the Orthodox Faith and the Holy Scripture. Pray about it, and join in!

From the Amvon/Pulpit of Father John Adamcio:

COURSE CORRECTION.....

A fascinating factoid: When you get on an airplane, the aircraft can be “off course” more than 90% of the time! Yet, it manages to arrive at its destination safely, and on time. Due to weather conditions and other factors, the pilot has to make necessary course corrections from time to time, getting back “on course.”

We are coming close to the beginning of the Great Fast. The Holy Orthodox Church in her wisdom gives us four preparatory Sundays to get us ready for the Fast itself. Incidentally, there are several Sundays that lead up these preparatory Sundays, allowing us to “change gears” in order for us to get the most out of our Lenten preparation for Holy Pascha. Among these pre-preparatory Sundays we hear about the Blind Beggar (who miraculously receives his sight by our Lord), and the Canaanite Woman (whose humble, yet insistent pleading prompted Jesus to heal her daughter).

Today, we hear about the encounter between our Lord and Zacchaeus. In this incident, our Lord brings “salvation to his house,” and Zacchaeus changes his attitude and life.

These pre-preparatory Sundays bring us to the Sunday of the Publican and Pharisee, which is the beginning of the Lenten Triodion, a selection of special verses and hymns taking us through the Great Fast to the celebration of the Feast of Feasts, the Holy Day of Holy Days: Pascha.

In this space over the next few weeks, we will examine the ways we can take advantage of making personal “course corrections” so that we can truly celebrate the wonderful and most joyous day of Pascha. We will examine the practice of prayer, fasting, receiving Confession (especially during days of penance and repentance), as well as preparing to receive Holy Communion. With the wonderful Scripture readings the Holy Church gives us, as well as the marvelous opportunities for corporate prayer (especially the Divine Liturgy of the Presanctified Gifts) we will be shown the way to Pascha.

Bit by bit, we will be able to see where we have “gone off course” and the best way to get back on course. Thus, we will be able to travel that road which the Holy Prophet Isaiah prophesies: A highway shall be there, and a road, and it shall be called the Highway of Holiness (Isaiah 35:8).

This is an exciting time to be on this highway, and one to which we can look forward traveling together.
